

Eagle Harbor Book Co., a local treasure and proudly independent bookstore, has been serving the Bainbridge Island community, and the surrounding Kitsap Peninsula region, since 1970. We carry a diverse collection of books ranging widely in subject matter and a unique selection of cards, journals, stationery, gifts, and games. Known as a community gathering place for locals and visitors alike, Eagle Harbor Book Co. also offers entertaining and inspiring author events that welcome and challenge visitors to discover and explore new ideas.

We are a retail business committed to the principle of freedom of expression. Our purpose is to provide a service to our customers that will enrich them, and to bring people and books together in an ethical, enjoyable, and socially conscious manner.

We recognize that the store must have financial health as its primary consideration. At the same time, we choose to do business in a way that encourages what is positive in the human spirit, operating in a manner based on trust, believing this to be in the best interest of the business, the community, and the society in which we live.

We are a diverse working community of individuals; each recognized as being unique and bringing to each task the full commitment of our abilities. We believe that with this freedom to use our creative talents comes the responsibility to integrate our individuality with the goals of the group and the store.
